

Biography

Maria Balboa

Maria earned a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre from Kean University School of Visual and Performing Arts, with a focus in stage management and technical direction.

She began her professional career by freelancing in New York City as the production stage manager of numerous off-Broadway shows. She then accepted a position as a project manager for Prism Production Services, where she managed the fabrication of custom props and provided production services to the Broadway industry.

Her ability to organize, schedule and manage production efficiently with consistently high-quality standards, earned her the position as Director of Production, of 13 years, with Prop N Spoon. Throughout her career, Maria has managed the production of props and scenery for hundreds of Broadway shows, national tours and international shows. She has also managed production for the special events, retail displays and permanent installation industries. Her experience spanning multiple industries has allowed her to develop a diverse skillset.

Maria immensely enjoys exploring her passion for working with others, in a collaborative effort, to create amazing visual experiences. She has recently taken on a new role as Senior Account Manager with Dimensional Communications Inc. and is excited for the opportunity to continue her work in leading ambitious projects.